

SACRIFICE AND DISHABILE BUILDINGS.—The attention of all was directed to the good investments in real estate which were made by Mr. George W. Pease, Poston, and Lytle, by C. C. Spencer, auctioneer, on Thursday afternoon, May 1st, prox. This is really desirable property, situated in a part of the city which is rapidly improving. There are two or three lots to be sold and the sale will be prompt. The owner is a non-resident and is anxious to dispose of the property. The space between Portland and Louisville is rapidly becoming filled up with buildings, and it is a great service to the city to reach this property, which renders a desirable location for the residence of mechanic and business men, who wish to live removed from the heat and dust of the city. It will not be many years before the whole neighborhood of these lots will be densely built up and the ground租地 will be valuable. The sale deserves the attention of capitalists desiring to make profitable investments and also those who desire cheap building lots for their residence.

THE HATTER POET.—Our readers will see that our friend Blaikie, whose hats are really fine to be noticed in sober prose, is out with another poetical announcement to-day. We are sorry to learn that he has been compelled to leave us, and we hope he will return to us again. We have heard at least fifty young men who became poets simply from hats manufactured by him.

HIRE ESTATE SALES.—We call the attention of our readers to Mr. C. C. Spencer's sale of fourteen building lots on Jacob, College, Brook, and Floyd streets, the afternoon, at 3 P.M. on the premises. For private residences these lots are not surpassed by any in the city, in point of location, being high and beautiful. Mr. Spencer requests us to say that so doing will be allowed under his circumstances, and that all sales effected will be entirely and exclusively his. We hope there will be a large attendance, and we feel convinced that those who long will never have occasion to repeat their purchase.

DR. COOK'S HOSPITAL.—It is said, will give immediate relief in all cases of violent attacks of asthma or spasmodic cough, causing the patient to breathe with ease and freedom and to rest quietly. Raymond & Fatten, Fourth street, are the agents.

MISS MARGIE MITCHELL.—The beauty of Miss Maggie Mitchell last night shone brighter than a well-lighted house, but not so crowded as she deserved. Her acting last night afforded great satisfaction to her large audience. She was loudly called for after the second piece. In "The Middy Ashore" her Sailor's Hornpipe was most exquisitely rendered. She is beyond a doubt a graceful and beautiful dancer, and as an actress gave promise of the very highest attainments in her profession. Miss Mitchell was ably assisted by Mr. Lorton, who had prepared an action of no common merit in whatever he undertook.
